Dear Alpha Alice:

As camp comes to a close, I find myself being homesick for camp. I realize that I will be plagued with Ma-Ka-Ja-Wanitis until next June. How can I keep from missing camp.

Stricken Staffman

Dear Stricken:

To combat Ma-Ka-Ja-Wanitis

I suggest the following:

1) Wear your staff jacket whenever possible

Use your scout shorts and staff t-shirt for pajamas.

 Only drink from the 45th anniversary mug.

4) Hum "The Scouts of Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan" to ward off depression. Alpha Alice
