

MAKAJAWAN

JULY 3
1975

FLASH! FLASH!

FLASH! FLASH!

The Food Service has issued an alert for all camper's and staff. Last night track's were spotted on the illusive Ma-Ka-Ja-Dawg. The onslaught of Dawgs are upon us. Watch the blackboards at the Dining Halls for more information!

.....

FAMILY CAMP GOSSIP:

There were about 20 family campers who went horseback riding yesterday evening and about 12 who went rafting this morning. We hope Paul Lamermayer had a good time on his horse!

We're having a weiner roast for supper and don't forget the fireworks!

.....

SCOUTING HISTORY OF HERB OUTTEN:

Herb Outten is serving as a Volunteer Commissioner in West and East Camps. He is working with the Scout Leaders and advising the Handi-Craft Directors. Mr. Outten's scouting carrer began in 1939 when he became a 1st class scout with Troop 37 in Ballston, Virginia. During the years 1956 and 1960, he served as an advisor in Yokohoma, Japan and in Guam, M.I. In 1968, he became a Cubmaster to Pack 177 in Mundelein, Illinois where he received the Scouter's Key. After serving as a Cubmaster for four years, he became the Scoutmaster for Troop 77, Mundelein, and also served on their Troop Committee. In 1973, he turned his interests and talents to Troop 182 also in Mundelein. While serving as a Scoutmaster in 1969, he became a part of the Round-table Commissioner Staff. He has received the Scouter's Key and Arrow Head Awards. He also received the Trailblazer Award from Fox Trail District. Mr. Outten is a Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow Lodge #40.

.....

The following items are available for sale in the Administration Building:

- Progress Awards --- Paul Bunyan --- Scout Lifeguard --- Mile Swim ---
- Leadership Corps --- 50 Mile Award-Decal and Leather --- American Flag for uniform --- Northeast Illinois Council patches --

WEST CAMP

BULLETINS FROM BARRY:

Silver Bullet -- Carl Carlson, Troop 72. He shot a score of 45.

There are still a few times available for troop or patrol shoots. If interested, contact the Field Sprots Staff.

CRAFTY HANDS SAYS:

Have you ever learned the secrets of the closed and leather braids? Drop in today and examine this rare phenomenon. Also, come in and see the official Boy Scout stool kit in complete form. Ever make an axe sheath or neckerchief slide? Come down and ask for details.

WEST ECOLOGY CONSERVATION:

On the west wall of the Dining Lodge outside door is the Eco-Brief bulletin board. This board will tell of coming Ecology events. Read them CAREFULLY.

EAST CAMP

SHORTS FROM MIKE:

- (1) We are killing West Camp in horseback riding ticket sales- Go East!
- (2) There will be a campwide retreat at 5:45 pm. All troops should report to the Dust Bowl.
- (3) East Camp will go to West Camp tonight for the Fireworks display. All Troops should meet in the Dust Bowl at 8:30 pm.
- (4) Rumor has it that Crown Point Commissioner site will be having a Scoutmaster dinner tonight for Scoutmasters from Comanche, Iroquois, Cheyenne, Mohawk, and Chippewa. The problem is that nobody can find Mike Tager at press time to get details -- Michael, where are you?

WEATHER REPORT AND FORECAST

Station WWB:

Today - Very hot and humid
Mostly sunny with few scattered clouds
Nice for fireworks

Forecast - High 89
Low 71

Eastern M.E.S.H.:

Today - mild and a bit colder
High in the high 80's

Tonight - fair with a lot of mosquitoes

Data - Temp- Low 66°F
High 78°F

Barometric Pres- 30.235" rising

Precip- 1/8" rain

Wind- NW at 2-7 knots

Dear Peppermint Patty,
After drinking my milk last night, I'm seeing Stars and Stripes forever. Could this be an early 4th of July?

The Star Spangled Kid

Dear Star Spangled Kid,
21 years experience should tell you how to handle this!
Peppermint Patty

HAPPY FOURTH!
#199