Hey Larry Young!

You know Larry, all those cheers in the dining hall sure are good, but I don't think anyone knows the commissioner cheer. Well, Bob, if they came up to Fort Ticonderoga, I am sure they would hear it.

To The Roving Maurader -

Keep up the good work and lots of luck with WWB.

EDITORIAL:

Yesterday, one of the West scouts (Scott Moran) made a visit to the East Rifle Range. Well, it is said that Scott won the Silver Bullet, but was unable to receive it. Come on East Camp, you were beat on your own range and with your own rifles. Are you ready for a challenge?

HORSES HORSES

A man was walking down a street in Chicago. When he came to the corner of Michigan Avenue and State Street, he noticed something strange. There was a horse in the middle of the intersection. Not knowing what to do, he asked a policeman for assistance. The officer said that the best place to take the horse was the Zoo. So, the man lead the horse to the Zoo. The next day, the policeman saw the same man coming down the street riding the horse. The policeman stopped the man and said that he had told him to take the horse to the Zoo yesterday. The man answered yes that he took the horse to the Zoo yesterday and that today they were going to the Aquarium.
