ASK THE WIZ!

Dear Wiz:

What is going to happen at the Orienteering Contest today?

Scoutie

Dear Scoutie,

I'm not sure, but I hear that Buster, from the horse farm, is going to throw out the first compus while John Rowe sings the Scouts of Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan.

EAST CAMP:

Attention - Today is the day of the Orienteering Meet. Meet at 1:45 at the Chapel, and bring a compass, a topographical map (available at T.P.) and a pencil. Come on out and try your hand at map and compass and see woodlands you haven't yet. Don't worry, you can't get lost. Try it for fun. See you there!

Shamed by the example of two matrons in Family Camp, two members of Troop 69 Leadership Corps completed the Mile Swim at East Camp last week. Tom Kessel, senior patrol leader, and Bill Keyes, ASPL and Ram patrol counselor, Braved Hot Sun and calm waters to complete their memorable feat.

In East Camp, Mohawk, there is a Tr. 16 acting ASM named Nigel (Yank-Pongo) Beam. Mr. Beam is a college student visiting the states from England. He met Tr. 16 at last year's 8th Essex International Jamboree in England, + has formed some permanent Scout friendships here. If you want, come and swap patches with him!

* To those who will come and ask me why? Guess what - we had no electricity this morning, that is the reason for the hand written Smoke Signals. Jim
